

YOUR HELP MATTERS

HONORING THEIR SACRIFICE HERE AT HOME

Send Your Thanks to a Military Spouse or Child

Show your appreciation by making a card or writing a letter for a military spouse or military child, our Littlest Heroes! Wives and husbands of service members, and their children, are often overlooked for the love and support they provide their active-duty spouses. Their commitment and patriotic sacrifices such as living far from family, friends, and being separated from spouses for several months at a time are also frequently unacknowledged.

Writing a card to a military spouse or child is not only patriotic in service, but also uplifting and encouraging. All of the cards and letters received will be included inside of a Care Package that will be given to a deserving military spouse or child.

"Thank you so much for your strength and dedication to your spouse, family, and country. Your courage and perseverance to remain strong on the home front is greatly appreciated. You are an amazing person! Thank you and your family for all you do every day! We are praying for your families safety."

Grateful Military Spouses

Ana G:

"I wanted to thank you for the package I received. The note brought tears to my eyes; I appreciate the heartfelt words that were spoken. I wanted to thank all of those who spent time putting everything together. Thank you so much!"

Heather Tim S:

"...I found all kinds of ...neat goodies and a very nice letter written to thank me and my family. It was a "Thank you for your service" letter, and the box was especially made for me, the spouse. So, here I am writing to tell you how wonderful that was."

Cassie C: "I got a care package for a military spouse! Love all the stuff inside and the little notes made it special! Thank you for all that you do!"
